I. Introduction:

On July 7, 2025, The Oxford College of Business Management, HSR Layout, Bengaluru, had the distinct privilege of hosting a highly insightful Career Orientation session led by the esteemed Ms. Laxmi. This engaging session was specifically designed for the students of final-year MBA programs to equip them with essential knowledge and strategies for navigating their professional journeys.

II. Objectives

The Career Orientation session conducted by Ms. Laxmi aimed to achieve several key objectives for the participating students:

- To Provide Insight into Current Industry Trends.
- To Guide on Career Pathway Selection.
- To Equip with Job Search Strategies.
- To Emphasize Skill Development.

III. Conclusion

The Career Orientation session by Ms. Laxmi on July 7, 2025, at The Oxford College proved to be an immensely valuable and enlightening experience for all attendees. Ms. Laxmi's insightful presentation, coupled with her interactive approach, effectively addressed the career-related queries and anxieties of the students, providing them with a clearer vision for their professional futures. The session successfully met its objectives by equipping students with actionable strategies for job searching, emphasizing the criticality of skill development, and offering practical guidance on navigating the complexities of the modern workforce. Students left the session feeling more confident, motivated, and better prepared to embark on their career journeys. The college extends its sincere gratitude to Ms. Laxmi for her invaluable contribution, and the success of this orientation underscores The Oxford College's unwavering commitment to providing its students with holistic development and the best possible resources to achieve their career aspirations.
