The Department of Business Managemen organized a warm Farewell Program for the MBA fourth semester students, hosted by the second semester batch. The event was held in a cheerful and emotional atmosphere, celebrating the journey and achievements of the outgoing students.

The program began with a welcome address by the juniors, expressing gratitude to their seniors for their guidance, support, and friendship throughout their academic journey. The event was designed not only to bid farewell but also to strengthen the bond between the two batches.

A special cultural program was arranged by the second semester students, which included dances, songs, skits, and fun games. These performances created a lively atmosphere and reflected the talents and creativity of the juniors. Seniors enjoyed the engaging performances and appreciated the efforts taken to make the day memorable.

To mark the occasion, a lunch was arranged for all students and faculty members. This provided an informal setting where juniors and seniors could interact, share experiences, and create lasting memories together. The lunch was followed by a session where seniors shared their thoughts, recalling their two-year journey, and offering advice to their juniors about career growth and professional life.

The program concluded with tokens of appreciation presented to the outgoing students, along with best wishes for their future endeavors. Overall, the farewell was filled with emotions, laughter, and togetherness, making it a memorable day for both batches.
